

Soft-Power Internationalism, 1990-2020:
Cultural Struggles over International Order

Edited, with introduction and contributions by Victoria de Grazia and Burcu Baykurt

Forthcoming
Columbia University Press
Spring, 2021
408 pages

CONTENTS

1. Introduction: Soft Power Internationalism – Victoria de Grazia and Burcu Baykurt

PART 1: Historical and Conceptual Foundations of Soft Power Internationalism

2. Soft Power USA Versus Normative Power EU: Competing Ideals of Hegemony in the Post-Cold-War West, 1990-2015 – Victoria de Grazia
3. Circulating Liberalism: The Global Internet and the Rise of Soft Power Internationalism – Burcu Baykurt

PART 2: Turkey

4. Turkey's "Soft Power": A Conceptual Overreach and a Conversation in Multiple Concepts – Dilek Barlas and Lerna Yanik
5. Turkey as 'Trading State': The High Hopes for Commerce from the Boom Years to the Arab Spring – Mustafa Kutlay

PART 3: Brazil

6. Bridge-Builder, Humanitarian, Donor, Reformer of Global Order: Brazilian Narratives of Soft Power Before Bolsonaro – Oliver Stuenkel
7. Lula's Assertive Foreign Policy: Soft Power or Dependency? – Fernando Santomauro and Jean Tible

PART 4: China

8. China's Soft Power in Africa: Promoting Alternative Perspectives – Martina Bassan
9. The Evolution of China's Soft Power Quest from the late 1980s to 2010s – Pang Zhongying
10. Global China and Symbolic Power in the Era of the Belt and Road - Anastas Vangeli

PART 5: Euro-Atlantic Perspectives

11. The End or the Beginning of Normative Power Europe? Transcendence and the Crisis of European Foreign Policy – Thomas Diez
12. Is There a Coherent Ideology of Illiberal Modernity, and Is It a Source of Soft Power? – Jack Snyder

Power, Propaganda, and Hegemony: A Selected Bibliography

Acknowledgments

List of Contributors

Index

